WHY ATTEND?

Reception is one of the most significant years in a child's educational journey. This programme explores how purposeful interactions, ambitious provision and evidence-informed teaching can transform children's communication, language and early literacy.

You'll develop practical approaches that strengthen classroom practice while building leadership capacity to sustain long-term improvement.

WHY IT MATTERS

Children's early language and literacy experiences shape future success across the curriculum. Evidence shows that high-quality interactions, language-rich environments and explicit teaching in Reception have a significant impact on later reading, writing and academic achievement.

YOU WILL EXPLORE:

High-quality language and literacy provision

Leadership strategies that improve Reception practice

Developing spoken language through purposeful interaction

Building the connection between reading and early writing

Supporting transcription, composition and Early Learning Goals

THE IMPACT

Confident practitioners • Stronger Reception provision • Improved language and literacy outcomes • Consistent classroom practice • Children ready to thrive

Graphic novels and purposeful discussion open new pathways into reading for many children, particularly those who are less confident or reluctant readers. Explore how visual storytelling, high-quality texts and rich conversations can build confidence, develop vocabulary and foster a genuine culture of reading for pleasure.

WHY IT MATTERS

Reading motivation is one of the strongest predictors of reading frequency and attainment. When pupils enjoy discussing books and see themselves reflected in engaging, high-quality texts, they are more likely to become confident, independent readers.

YOU WILL EXPLORE:

Selecting high-quality graphic novels

Using book talk to deepen reading engagement

WHY IT MATTERS

Reading comprehension relies on a broad foundation of language, vocabulary and background knowledge. When schools deliberately develop these alongside phonics, pupils are better equipped to become fluent, confident readers.

YOU WILL EXPLORE:

The essential foundations for successful reading

Developing language & communication alongside phonics

Supporting pupils who struggle with reading

WHY ATTEND?

Successful schools don't leave September to chance. This session will help you review priorities, organise provision and prepare your team to deliver consistent, high-quality reading from day one. You'll leave with a practical roadmap that supports strong leadership and sustained improvement throughout the year.

WHY IT MATTERS

Strong implementation begins with careful preparation. Schools that establish clear expectations, consistent routines and effective leadership from the outset are more likely to sustain improvements in teaching and pupil outcomes.

YOU WILL EXPLORE:

Preparing your reading action plan

Organising resources and reading provision

Planning staff development and consistency

Early assessment and responsive support

Leading a successful start to the academic year

Confident leaders • Consistent provision • Well-prepared staff •
Stronger implementation

WHY ATTEND?

Great writing begins long before pen meets paper. Explore how high-quality talk, rich vocabulary and carefully planned teaching develop articulate thinkers and confident writers. This event will help leaders and teachers build a coherent, whole-school approach to writing that progresses from Early Years through to Key Stage 3.

WHY IT MATTERS

Research consistently demonstrates that high-quality classroom talk improves vocabulary, reasoning and writing outcomes. Explicitly developing spoken language before writing enables pupils to communicate ideas more effectively and write with greater confidence.

YOU WILL EXPLORE:

Developing writing through purposeful talk

The progression from oral composition to independent writing

Embedding shared and modelled writing

Practical strategies to strengthen writing instruction

Creating a coherent whole-school writing journey
